

PRESS ITEMS

EFFECTS OF CONGRESSIONAL ACTIONS ON ANGOLA

EUROPE

- A. Dec 18. Frankfurter Allgemeine. If Congressmen see nothing but coming election, Soviets will win with the geostrategic round.
- B. Dec 19. Daily Telegraph. Congress gives green light to Moscow.
- C. Dec 21. The Observer. Innocence is not enough.
- D. Dec 22. Frankfurter Allgemeine. Kissinger's sophisticated foreign policy cannot work much longer with coarse Senate interventions.
- E. Dec 22. The Times. A test for the United States.
- F. Dec 22. La Nazione. Heedless Senators help Moscow's cause.
- G. Dec 31. Daily Express. Americans apparently intent on destroying power and influence of their presidency and country.
- H. Jan 12. Tagespiegel. Kremlin laughs as Congress puts chain around President.
- I. Jan 12. Il Tempo. Congress gives even minor covert activities disproportionate dimensions.
- J. Jan 3. London Economist. It is a question of whether Americans understand there is no substitute for American.
- K. Jan 7. Russian wisecrack: Ending intervention in Angola just to please Kissinger could antagonize Congress.
- L. Jan 13. Stuttgarter Zeitung. Downright comic to tie Kissinger's hands, but not the Russians.
- M. Jan 20. Kinshasa Daily Elima. Soviet intervention in Angola only first step in regional strategy; up to West to take up the challenge.